Doctrine of Education Worksheet

A “Doctrine of Education” is your beliefs about education. In essence, we want to know why you choose to home-educate. What is the motivational force behind your efforts? On days when you are struggling, you must be able to follow this statement and remember why you are doing this.

Here are some thoughts and challenges:

(Taken from the Elijah catalog). In the lives of the Davis family, who operate the Elijah ministry, they state, “In our own lives, as we began understanding the different influences on education, God challenged us with a host of questions”:

1. What if we look at education differently?
2. What if we start viewing it not as a commodity but as an outworking of the convictions and priorities of our family?
3. What if we see it as part of the “equipping of the saints . . . for the work of service?”
4. What if we operate under a different set of assumptions than institutional education?
5. Assumptions like:
  - a. God has created our particular family unit and given us our specific children because our family has a unique, God-ordained meaning and purpose.
  - b. God has put in our hearts the convictions and values of our family’s unique meaning and purpose.
  - c. These convictions and values make up the core of the people we want our children to become.
  - d. Our education of our children reflects these convictions and values.
  - e. God will stay actively involved in the process for our children’s sakes.”

The definition of education according to Webster’s 1828 Dictionary:

“The bringing up, as a child; instruction; formation of manners. Education comprehends all that series of instruction and discipline which is intended to enlighten the understanding, correct the temper, and form the manners and habits of youth, and fit them for usefulness in their future stations. To give children a good education in manners, arts and science, is important; to give them a religious education is indispensable; and an immense responsibility rests of parent and guardians who neglect these duties.”

With all of these items to think about, here are several questions that will help you write this:

1. What is Education? Some verses to help: John 17:17, Psalm 111:10, Proverbs 9:10, 2 Timothy 3:16, Proverbs 16:16
2. What is your family’s belief about education? What is its purpose? Proverbs 22:6, Titus 1:9, 1 Peter 3:15, 2 Timothy 2:15

3. What do we believe about parental rights and responsibilities concerning education? Proverbs 22:6, Psalm 127:3-5, 2 Timothy 3:15

4. What is your family's purpose for home-schooling?

Educational Goals

Please list at least two to three goals per student that you would like to focus on for the next school year:

" ... Would exempt pupils in a home-based private school and students enrolled in an independent study program and who do not receive classroom-based instruction..."
